

CLASS OF 1815.

DAVID BROOKS.

DIED: At Fortress Mackinac, (Michigan) on the 16th of May, Lieut. David Brooks, of the 2nd Inf., U. S. Army, son of the hon. David Brooks, formerly of Dutchess County, N. Y.

Christian Advocate & Journal
June 15, 1827.

DAVID BROOKS, 1815, of Poughkeepsie, N. Y., was a member of the Adelpsis Society.
He died in 1827.
Adelphic Catalogue 1830

CLASS OF 1815.

DAVID BROOKS, JR.

DIED: At Fortress Mackinac (Michigan), Lieut. David Brooks, of the 2d Infantry, U. S. Army, son of Hon. David Brooks, formerly of Dutchess Co., N. Y.

Saturday Evening Gazette.
June 9, 1827.

CLASS OF 1815.

DAVID BROOKS, JR.

Frances Morris, daughter of William Walton Morris, married 1st. Capt. David Brooks U. S. A.; 2nd. Abraham Shepard. Her mother was Sarah Carpenter.

Issue by 1st marriage:

1. Fanny, married William Walton and died without issue.
2. Isabella, married Walter Rutherford and had four sons and one daughter.

Historic Families of America p. 222
Walter W. Spooner.
New York.

Isabella, daughter of David Brooks, U. S. A., and Frances Morris, married Walter Rutherford.

The Jones Family of Long Island p. 186
John H. Jones
New York 1907.

Frances Morris was the daughter of William Walton Morris, third son of Lewis Morris, the signer, and Miss Carpenter.

Walter Rutherford married Frances Brooks, June 4, 1846. He was a graduate of Rutgers College, 1831.

Family Records and Events p. 246
Livingston Rutherford
New York 1894.

David Brooks married Frances Morris, daughter of Lt. William Walton Morris, U.S.A., and Sarah Carpenter. She married 2nd Abraham Shepard.

Issue: Frances Anne, m. William Henry Walton.

Isabella Neil, b. May 1831

d. July 27, 1903.

m. 1848

Walter Rutherford, b. June 14, 1812; d. 1868.

Gouverneur Morris, died young.

Descendants of Lewis Morris Chart E II 236
Elizabeth Morris Lefferts

David Brooks was the son of David Brooks, Member of Congress, who died Aug. 30, 1838.

David Brooks, Jr

1815
9B

David Brooks, Jr. 1815
F.B.